

How to become an interventional radiologist in Canada

STEP 1

Medical School

STEP 2

Diagnostic Radiology Residency Program
(5 years)

- McGill University*
- Université de Montréal*
- Université de Sherbrooke
- Université de Laval*
- Memorial University
- Dalhousie University
- University of Ottawa
- Queen's University
- Western University*
- McMaster University
- University of Toronto
- University of Saskatchewan
- University of Manitoba
- University of Calgary
- University of Alberta
- University of British Columbia

STEP 3

Interventional Radiology

Option 1: Canadian fellowship. Apply at the beginning of year 4 of a Diagnostic Radiology Program (1 year)

Option 2: Transfer into an Integrated IR residency program. Available at select institutions (*) and initiated between year 2-4 of a Diagnostic Radiology Residency Program

Université de Laval | McGill University | Université de Montréal | Western University

Option 3: International Fellowships (1-3 years)

Typical Canadian Route

Undergraduate Degree

↳ Medical School

↳ Diagnostic Radiology Residency

↳ Interventional Fellowship

Additional graduate programs completed concurrently include MSc and PhD.

This information is brought to you by the Canadian Association for

Interventional Radiology
Association canadienne pour la radiologie d'intervention

cairweb.ca
info@cairweb.ca

